August 1 to 5
August 8 to 12

*No camp on July 4.

Campers are welcome for any number of weeks. You may come for one week or all eight weeks.

WHAT TO BRING FOR CAMP

- Long pants or jeans for riding and a change of clothes
- Swimsuit and towel
- Hard-soled shoes or boots, must have a slight heel (no sneakers for riding)
- Snacks and beverages

Riding helmets are supplied by the camp.

LOCATION

COME AND ENJOY!

Spend your summer days riding on the beautiful 240-acre George School campus. Learn how to improve your riding and horsemanship skills. We have horses available for beginner to advanced levels. For safety reasons, beginner and advanced students have their own separate programs.

Our camp includes flatwork, jumping, trail riding, and a weekly show. We have certified instructors. We emphasize safety and riding enjoyment for campers aged 8 to 16!

Every Thursday we take a trip to Fox Heath to participate in their Thursday morning horse show. To enter the Fox Heath show, enclose an extra $65. Entering is optional, but everyone goes to learn about shows.

Every Friday afternoon we hold a George School horse show.

We offer a hot buffet lunch in the George School dining room. This includes a deli bar, hot bar, salad bar, and hot dogs and hamburgers, on each day. On Thursday, George School packs lunches for campers to take to Fox Heath and also offers to buy hot dogs at the show.

Besides the summer day camp, we offer beginner to advanced lessons year round from Tuesday through Sunday.
